

WORK WEAKENS THE KIDNEYS.

Man's Kidney Pills Have Done Great Service for People Who Work in Barre.

Most Barre people work every day in some strain, unusual position—bending constantly over a desk—riding on jolting wagons or cars—doing laborious housework, lifting, reaching, or pulling, or trying the back in a hundred and one other ways. All these strains tend to wear, weaken and injure the kidneys until they fall behind in their work of filtering the poisons from the blood. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, put new strength in bad backs. Barre cures prove it.

Isaac Gougeon of 23 Branch street, Barre, Vt., says: "I have been bothered more or less for years with an aching back and sharp pains through my loins when stooping. My work requires a good deal of heavy lifting and as a rule in a damp place, which, of course, aggravates my trouble. I learned of people here in Barre who had been cured by Doan's Kidney Pills, so I went to E. A. Drown's drug store and got a box. They did me a lot of good, and since I have used them there has been no pain in my back and I rest well nights. I am glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as an excellent remedy for backache."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Peter Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

RANDOLPH

Will Soon Investigate Strain of Granite on Mann Farm.

G. W. Boyce of New York has been in town this week making arrangements for an investigation of the granite on Mrs. Ida Mann's farm which will be begun in the near future.

The three small children of Guy Lamson are ill with whooping cough.

Mrs. G. A. Emery of West Berkshire is with her son whose family have been ill for some time.

Miss Della Preston of South Royalton is now employed in the suit department of Bell's store.

Mrs. Ernest Sargent and her two children returned to her home in Woodville, N. H., on Thursday.

H. B. Salisbury and son, Franklin, are in Boston on business trip and will also attend the automobile show.

Miss Genevieve Lamson is the guest of Miss Maurice Thayer at Essex Junction and will remain over Sunday.

Fred Chadwick is here from Philadelphia for two or three weeks' rest from his work of travelling for the National Picnic company.

Mrs. George Dwyer is at the sanatorium where she will be installed as housekeeper this week in place of Mrs. Spaulding who has resigned.

Mrs. Draper is in Boston in company with her daughter, Mrs. James Walker of Barre, where they are selecting goods for their spring millinery trade.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kinney left town Monday. Mr. Kinney going to Montpelier and Mrs. Kinney to Morrisville. After a month they will return here for a time.

What the Middlebury Register Thinks of the Hyde Park Savings Bank

Up in "spunky Lamolite" county resides a man who believes with all his might in the liberal use of printers ink; and is frank to admit that the success of his very large business is due in a great measure to the fact that he has constantly kept his business before the public through the medium of the press. This man is Ex-Gov. C. S. Page. His hide business at the present time is known all over the world; and a visit to this enormous establishment would be a revelation to one unacquainted with its growth in the past twenty-seven years. Hyde Park, though a pretty little village, would not have one-fourth the publicity it now enjoys were it not for the fact that it is the home of a business that has grown in the past quarter-century to such a size that it commands attention all over the country and beyond.

Another enterprise that was started by Mr. Page and has prospered from its very inception is the savings bank in his home town. Aside from the fact that this increase shows that Vermont was hardly touched by the financial disturbances of late, it is an excellent testimonial to the thrift of Vermonters as a whole. The boast—and it is a justifiable one—that the funds are invested entirely in the State, may also be true of other banks; but C. S. Page believes in letting the people know about it. The people have faith in Mr. Page's ability, honesty, tact and management. They are glad that their savings are kept at home; and it tends to beget confidence to learn that in nineteen years the concern has lost not one dollar from bad notes.

OPERA HOUSE NOTES.

W. A. Whitecar in "An Old Sweetheart of Mine."

Contrast is the keynote of the new Western drama entitled "An Old Sweetheart of Mine," which will be seen at the opera house tonight. The characters run the gamut from aristocratic New Yorkers to the Mexican graver Love and hate, vice and virtue, truth and falsehood, purity and moral delinquency war each with the other in deadly combat. Round and about the dramatic persons is woven a veritable story, set in a picturesque frame of scenic beauty. The play is a noteworthy addition to the stage. Jules Murray of New York is the producer and W. A. Whitecar is the star appearing in his celebrated part of Richard Harrington, alias Dick Scott, said to be the strongest role this popular actor has ever had.

A Beautiful Portrayal.

A few years ago it would have been hard to find a minister of the gospel who did not hesitate to denounce the great majority of plays and almost all forms of theatrical amusement. Today, thanks to the enterprising "The Holy City" and "The Holy City," the drama finds in the church some of its staunchest advocates. It is a potent fact that the antipathy which was once so universally manifested by strict churchmen toward the drama, is gradually lessening. This encouraging condition has in no small measure been brought about by the fearless outspoken statements of a number of broad-minded clergymen who realize the great good which can be accomplished through the medium of wholesome plays. Their endorsement of the great Biblical drama, "The Holy City" has been from the first production of the play been most hearty, and has without doubt added greatly to the success of the enterprise. The above mentioned attraction is booked to appear in this city in the near future and its performance here will be awaited with eagerness. At the opera house Tuesday, March 17th.

TO DEVELOP THE BALKANS

This Italy's Policy, Declares Tittoni

FAVORS BOTH PROPOSALS

Of Austria and Russia—British Premier in Very Poor Health—Resignation Probable Upon the Return of King Edward.

Rome, March 12.—Answering an interrogation in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday regarding the construction of railroads in the Balkans, Foreign Minister Tittoni said there was no truth in the reports of friction between the members of the triple alliance on this subject. He added that Baron von Aehrenthal, the Austrian foreign minister, had informed him of the intention of Austria to extend the Austrian line south-east from Bosnia to join the Turkish line at Mitrovitza before he delivered his speech on this matter to the Austrian delegations. Continuing, Signor Tittoni said he did not think it possible to oppose Baron von Aehrenthal's plan as the treaty of Berlin granted Austria the right to construct this connection. This right had been acknowledged by Germany and England and it was not contested by the other Powers. What can be demanded is that Italy and the other Powers as well as the Balkan states themselves be allowed to build such other lines as they consider necessary for the development of their traffic. In this programme Italy found herself in accord with Russia, Signor Tittoni said, and notwithstanding the interpenetration of individuals and parties she was determined to maintain her existing relations with Russia, which were excellent. The Italy-Russia policy consisted of supporting projects for the construction of a line running from a port on the Adriatic to give connection by way of the Danube river with the Black sea, of a Greek line to connect Larissa, in Greece, with Salonika, in European Turkey, and of a third line between Monastir and Valona, on the Adriatic. This last-named connection was particularly interesting to Italy. Continuing, Signor Tittoni said he thought that harmony in the European concert could be maintained especially if the Powers would agree to consider the construction of railroads in the Balkans as simply a part of the reforms to be applied to Macedonia. The concert already was supporting the construction of every railroad of practical utility. In conclusion the foreign minister said: "Italian policy always will be inspired by the motto, 'Peace with honor.'"

O. P. Shaw had a severe attack of heart trouble on Wednesday, which lasted for a short time. The doctor was called and she was promptly brought out of it and was comfortable at last accounts.

The help in what is known as the tacking room of the tannery all left one day last week except one. The principal trouble seemed to be in regard to the installing of a new machine, which had been purchased by the company at an expense of $4,000, whereby the work was to be made much easier and done for less expense. No settlement was made, but the E. C. Fisher Co. found new help and the work was not seriously hindered.
